The article presents the results of a survey carried out on the current and future role of biofuels (i.e. biomethane, bioethanol and biodiesel) in the European Union (EU). The paper analyses the issue, including the importance of the EU policies in the development of such kind of renewable energies and their environmental impact. The topic falls within the scope of the journal.

Therefore, on the behalf of all authors, I declare that:

- The authors have no competing financial interests that could compromise the integrity of the work.
- I have read all submission instructions and I am responsible for the information inserted in the submission procedure. I assure that the contribution is original and unpublished, and that it is not being evaluated for publication by any other journal and that it will not be withdrawn from the editorial processes until the final publication decision by the journal's administration.

Moreover, I suggest three possible reviewers who have high standard scientific background on the topic:

Giordano URBINI, Full Professor of Sanitary and Environmental Engineering, Department of Biotechnologies and Life Sciences, University of Insubria, Varese, giordano.urbini@uninsubria.it.

Renato GAVASCI, Full Professor of Sanitary and Environmental Engineering, Department of Civil Engineering and Computer Science Engineering, University of Rome "Tor Vergata", email: gavasci@ing.uniroma2.it.

Maria Rosaria BONI, Full Professor of Sanitary and Environmental Engineering, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, University of Rome "La Sapienza", email: mariarosaria.boni@uniroma1.it.

I look forward to a positive review process and I am available as a reviewer for at least 3 papers for your Journal during the next year.

Best Regards,

Massimo Raboni
